Midnight & Wonder

Printable PDF · print as many copies as you like

For the grown-up

In the kit, 10 minutes every evening from December 1 to 24: a letter from Jingle, an activity and a kindness mission.

IN THIS SAMPLE

The evening of December 1 (Jingle introduces himself, coloring), the evening of December 6 (the elf memory game) and the mission tree. Read the letter out loud, then do the activity together.

THE "PIECES"

At the top of each evening, the piece of the day (no. 1: the tree, no. 6: the candy cane): in the full kit, a piece to cut out and glue onto the big North Pole map. Here, you can skip it.

THE MEMORY GAME

Print the page on cardstock (60 lb / 160 gsm) or glue it onto cardboard before cutting: otherwise the pictures show through. Grown-ups do the cutting for little ones.

THE MISSION TREE

Each kindness mission completed = one star colored in. Missions 1 and 6 are in this sample (at the bottom of the letters), the other 22 in the full kit.

YOU'LL NEED

Colored pencils, scissors, cardstock or cardboard for the memory game.

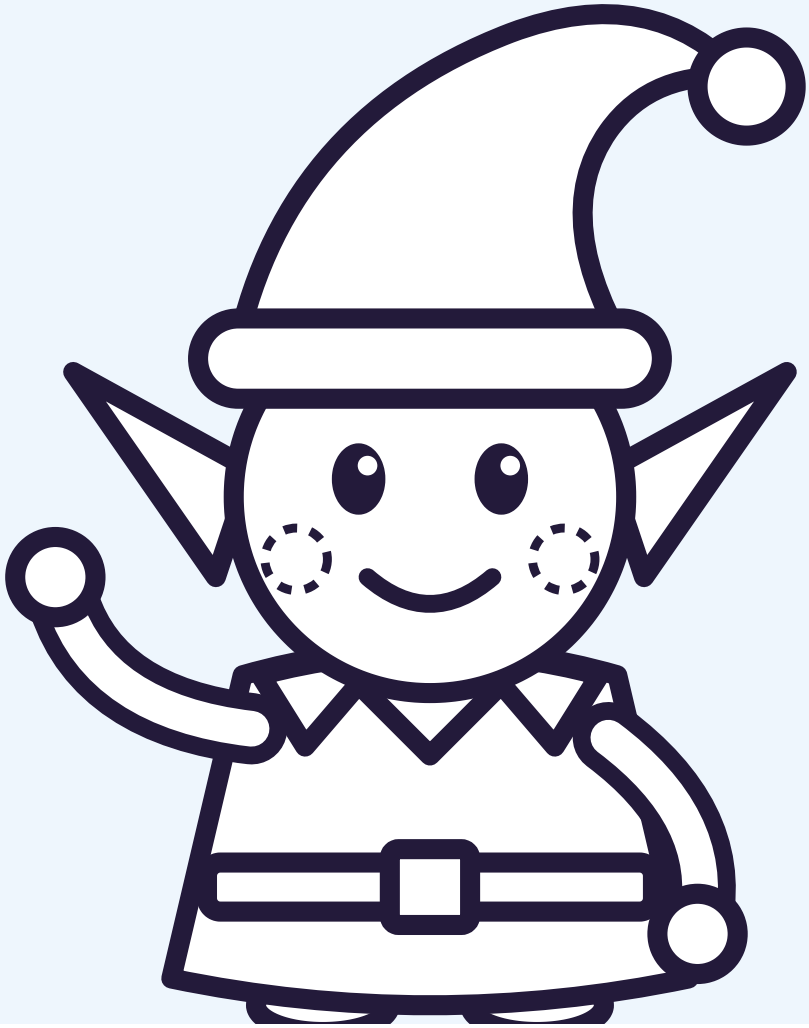
Jingle arrives!

Coloring · piece no. 1 in the full kit: the tree, to glue on the big map

Hello! My name is Jingle and I'm one of Santa's elves. He sent me to your house for the 24 nights before Christmas. Every evening I'll write you a letter, with an activity and a little mission. To start, color me in: at the North Pole everything is white, I need some color!

Jingle, your elf

Color Jingle with your most beautiful colors.



Kindness mission: Give someone in your family a big hug.

December 6 · 18 more sleeps

6 The elves' game

Game · piece no. 6 in the full kit: the candy cane, to glue on the big map

After work, the elves play memory. The champion is Tinker: he never forgets a card! Cut out the cards, shuffle them face down and turn them over two at a time. Who will find the most pairs?

Jingle, your elf

Cut out the 20 cards and play memory with your family.

Print on cardstock (160 gsm) or glue onto cardboard so the pictures don't show through.

Kindness mission: Let someone else win a game... and smile!
